Up-To-The-Minute Information Made Ready For Farmer

Most Recent Results On Six Vegetables Given By Experts

Upon the call of County Agent M. O. Mounts, a farm-ers' council was held at the Ma-yo pavilion at the Experiment Station, Monday afternoon, at which Dr. F. S. Jamison, Truck Horticulturist of the Florida Experiment Station at Gainesville was the principal speaker, assisted by several of the station staff.

Around thirty persons were present, all showing interest in the subject presented in a round table forum. The forum discussion was principally on vegetables, and related to soil preparation, seed selection and plant cultivation, spraying, harvesting, better packing and marketing, new products which are being grown with profit in the Glades, new insecticides and manner of treatment, and how to overcome farm problems which have puzzled many a tiller of the soil.

Beans was the first topic under discussion. It was pointed out that while there had been a number of new strain types of beans brought out, yet, indications were that there were none superior to the types which were now being planted and harvested in the Glades. It was deemed unwise to make changes, except on a small experimental way.

Sweet corn, which is now on the planting program, was given considerable discussion and the Herald is giving the results in the Glades at a profit and fill-in crop. Broccoli and Cauliflower were two such vegetables which it was deemed could be produced. The former was the one most preferred, as it had a greater trade demand, and not subjected to so great production trial and tribulations.

It was pointed out that great care should be taken to know the source and the history of the seed, and its tendency to develop black rot. In all cases, cabbage, cauliflower and broccoli seed should be given the hot water treatment before planting if a successful crop be expected.

Dr. Jamison stated that there were some black rot, in some portions of the state, but that it was controllable, and should not get the overhead on the state, if proper care was exercised by the grower. He also stated that cauliflower should be grown successfully, but it should be for the fresh market rather than for canners. Cauliflower is one of the vegetables that should have a try out in the Glades. It is a vegetable that is the closest of any to produce suitable white heads.

Farmers already are more or less familiar with egg plant growing, and the station men (Continued on page five.)

Negro Dies As Result Of Peculiar Tractor Accident On Sunday

Willie Murray, a Belle Glade negro, who assumed labor as a tractor operator for Fred Bettlemann, at Okelanta, Sunday, met with a fatal accident. Murray started up the tractor, and leaned over to adjust an instrument, and in so doing his sleeve caught in a gear and caused him to be pulled from his seat and thrown into the path of the machine which crushed him under its weight.

Peace Justice George Williams and Constable Ray Whitlock made official investigation of the case, and held Murray's death was due to an unavoidable accident, and that no inquiry was required.

Here's The How To Secure A Local Federal Building

Belle Glade is one of a near hundred towns in Florida, who want new federal buildings or post offices, and have been recommended for same for some years past. But Congressmen have been slow in making appropriations for such improvements. Many towns are growing at such a rapid rate that wait for Government financing seems inadvisable. Following paragraphs will show these structures may be obtained.

There's a bill before Congress that would permit you to do it. You'd be repaid in full at the end of 50 years, and receive 2 1/2 percent interest in your investment.

The Federal Works Agency says there are some 30 or 50 towns in Florida eligible for new Post Offices—but nobody knows when they'll ever be built. The bill is now in a Congressional appropriation bill.

Rams Ramble All Over Catfish In An Easy Conflict

Big Glades Crowd To See Ram-Eagle Game At Ft. Pierce, Tonight

Glades fans in large numbers will be rolling to Ft. Pierce, tonight, where the Golden Rams will meet the Golden Eagles of that school. Last year in an upset game, the Rams defeated the Eagles at Memorial Field a 6 to 0 victory. What the outcome will be tonight is not foreseeable, as both teams are made up practically on new membership.

Coach Levitt however is very sanguine that his present Rams will be able to handle the Eagles, so that they will not be screaming with a victory yell with witness the confounding of squawks. The Rams hope to pull a few of the tail feathers out of the Eagle's egg.

The coaching staff will head the Rams under a stiff program the past week, perfecting plays against the Eagles' offenses. The Rams are in good physical condition, and should give a good accounting of themselves in this Gulfstream conference contest.

Innovation Act Is Adopted By Our Commission

Something new occurred in City Commission session, last Wednesday night, for a new innovation was introduced, in that a minister of the gospel, in this instance, Rev. Leonard Vandervort, of the Community Methodist Church, appeared and offered a prayer. This is a custom which will be followed in the future, and deemed a very commendable one.

In order to carry on civic improvements and the routine work of the departments, commission department commissioners, all reported that they were in need of certain equipment. These requests were all given consideration, and resulted in the following orders: 333 telephones, three hundred feet of curb and gutter form, and a small type truck, equipped with four wheels, at costs of $2029, and $340, from the Georgia-Florida Tractor Co. A new one ton pickup truck, equipped with four wheel drive, hoist and winch for the Water Department, at $200; and bids for a gang lawn mower for the Park department.

Solicitor Beck presented a bill of $200 for the purchase of a distance, patterned after a pilot bill prepared by the State Veterans Department, at rates provided in the Legislative bill, and which is being universally adopted by cities expecting to Wilbur Kirchman states that the office is open in Belle Glade at the Sanders Building Monday days Wednesday and Fridays from 9:00 to 4:30. Purchase of a bill at the City Hall, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. He urges all veterans and their dependents with any problems concerning their veteran entitlements to come by and see him.

New Nurses Join Nursing Staff At Memorial Hospital

Superintendent Ernest Fiedler, of the Belle Glade Memorial hospital, has most gladly welcomed to the nursing staff who assumed duties on Monday morning, Miss Annie Snow, a former Captain in the Army Medical service, and for the past three years on the staff of the Walter Reed hospital, Washington, D.C., is one of the new nurses. The other is Miss Lyons, from Pennsylvania. She is a holder of a BS and nursing degrees from Duke University. She comes of a medical family as her father is a physician and surgeon.

Fred Chief L. E. Will spent several days in the hospital, as a result of injuries received in an auto skid accident, which included a broken nose and severe back injuries.

Mr. Mathewson, an aged man from Cincinnati, who was injured by a fall from an automobile, from being overcome by monoxide gas, was discharged from the hospital Thursday. He was most fortunate that he sustained no severe injuries. Local Mammie Davis gave supervisory attention to this aged gentleman during his hospital confinement.

In the evening, Healy and his visitation staff, will be received at the lodge session. He will be accompanied by the degree work as determined upon by the Belle Glade lodge staff, and will then present an outline of work as determined upon by the Grand Excited Ruler, for the lodges of the state. Other distinguished visiting Elks will also add to the delight of the speaking hour.

The Entertainment committee announced that there would be a barbecue of some kind served after the lodge meeting. Excited Ruler San Berry urges that all members of the local lodge be present on this occasion.

There was a gala night celebration for the negro people on Sunday night, October 9, at the Haven and West Palm Beach, at Memorial Park, Thursday night, sponsored by the Lions club of Belle Glade. It was the third such event at the field.

The negro people gathered out to Sunday night, the game making equipment, a fine visiting band, cheer leaders and drill teams, turned out en masse to back and encourage the "Wildcats."

The white patrons on the north side of the field, had little to do, but set back and enjoy the game, and see how the colored lads fared that old fashioned way. It was a wonderful and eye-opening manner, pulling plays not often seen in white games. It was a fine sight for everyone present at this annual benefit game.

A feature of the mid-half period was the appearance of the crack West Palm Beach Vocational High school band. The band was well equipped, and well uniformed, put on a mighty presentable spectacle. The band played for an evening parade through the city.

We Don't Need It
Anyone who still suffers under the illusion that only the government can adequately supply industry, agriculture and residential user with electricity, should take another quick look around.

For instance, in California a private utility is now building a huge new powerhouse, which will be ready for operation in 1951. At that time, the utility will have doubled its power electrical output—from 2,000,000 to 4,000,000 horsepower. It says this is "America's greatest power plant."

The utility industry as a whole is now engaged in the greatest expansion program in history. The cost will run well into the billions. Particularly emphasis is being laid on rural and agricultural electrification—within a relatively short time practically every farm will have central-station power available. For all classes of service, there will be a safe and growing margin of capacity over the demand.

The power produced by the utility industry is sold at rates and under conditions which are prescribed by public regulatory bodies. Heavy taxes—totalling more than 40 percent of revenues—are paid to government. And standards of service approach perfection.

Government power is wholly or partially tax free. There is no regulation. Often it is tax subsidized. Worse yet, it stands for socialism in a supposedly free country.

MEETING OF PTA HELD MONDAY NIGHT

The regular meeting of the PTA was held last Monday night at the school auditorium. The meeting was opened by the group singing "One World," which was led by Miss Mary Murphy and Miss Jean Martin, with Miss Alma Murphy at the piano. Opening prayer was offered by Rev. L. F. Vandervort. President, Mrs. W. C. Bamford, read the requirements for this chapter to reach the "Blue Ribbon Goal," a National Foundation of PTA. Mrs. Bamford stressed the point that it was the aim of the PTA to reach that goal this year.

A report was given by Mrs. Douglas Mathews, Safety Patrol chairman. She reported that belts and badges for the safety patrol had arrived. After a lengthy discussion on Safety Patrol work, it was decided to send out a list of safety regulations to each parent, for use driving around the school grounds.

The Finance Committee, who met last Thursday night, set up a budget for the year, gave the needs of the different school organizations, $110.00 was the amount required by the Safety Patrol, which includes partially financing sending a boy to Washington.

The music department needs about $110.00, which includes the purchase of 26 glue club robes and part payment on a piano. The Band needs $100.00 but will do most of their own financing. The Cafeteria needs a new dish-washing machine.

A special program for the year will be equipping the school play ground, which is expected to cost about $100.00. PTA expenses were set at $200. Most of this money is to be made from the Ballowe's Canteen.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

But Curly "Knows What The Score Is!"

Was over at the Sherman's drug store looking to the World Series on the radio. Curly Lasso was there in and says: "How about a chocolate malt?"

"Sure, Curly," says Doc, "can't you get a malted for a while?"

"What's the idea?" Curly asks. "Well," says Doc, "most of the folks want to get the game and the mixer makes too much noise." Curly thinks a moment and says, "Okay sure, Doc—I'll take a chocolate malt."

This shows how tolerant folks can be. Doc showed his respect for how the majority felt; Curly was big enough not to insist on his malted even though he doesn't happen to be fond of baseball.

From where I sit, willingness to respect the other people's feelings is important in a Democracy. If we're tolerant of a person's like for baseball or a glass of temperate beer, we've come a long way on the right road, as I thought to a better America, that is!

RAMS RAMBLE ALL

The Indian River Conference, came to Belle Glade, Friday night, to play the Golden Rams in that popular football sport. The looked around the field, they played upon the gridiron, but they did not go home with a victory trophy, nor did they expect to, for they were not able to cope against the Rams' final score stood 30 to 7 in favor of the Rams, who were knocking at the goal line for a final touchdown, when the whistle blew.

The Cattle knew they were the underdog, but gave them credit, they went out like true sports and played the game to the best of their ability, and in several stages of the game, even outplayed Levitt's backs.

The visitors offense was largely held to the passing game, and with passes and several touchdowns, they managed to get one touchdown and point after goal. However, they could not hold the Rams from the touchdown territory, as the score indicates.

One of their players was severely injured in the early stages of the game, and was carried from the field and later taken to the hospital for examination.

The Rams got into the scoring early in the game, in fact on the kickoff, when Williams got the ball and went straight down the field for a touchdown and added point.

The game was added to the list during the balance of the game. The fans took out their interest in trying to guess when the next Ram explosion would occur.

The Rams who piled up the touchdowns, were led by L. J. Gay, introduced the speaker, Dr. J. P. O'Callaghan of the Kiwanis Dental Clinic. Dr. O'Callaghan reported he has examined 64 local children's teeth. He said the examination was for clinical evidence of abscesses, decay and harmful growths in the mouth. After the check, parents were sent cards, stating whether the child was a mild, moderate, or severe dental case, 30 percent of those examined were ok, about 25 percent had severe multiple cavities. Dr. O'Callaghan did report his findings here no more than anywhere else in Palm Beach County.

At the close of the meeting, a gavel was presented to the PTA by Rev. Vandervort.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. Sam Barry, Mrs. Bob Cameron, Mrs. A. Hill, Mrs. Kenneth Lutz, Mrs. Ray Whitlock, Mrs. Lester Clark, Mrs. Carl Hayes, Mrs. C. D. McClure, Mrs. Harold Royce, Mrs. B. Z. Wedell, Sr. and Mrs. Bill Evans.

"Desk" Work Cuts Down Expenses On Flood Control Project

"Desk survey" work on the South and Central Florida flood control program has cut some $2,000,000 from the initial cost of the project, a state official said last week. Col. A. G. Matthews, chief engineer for the division of water survey and research, said the saving was made possible through cooperation of the division, flood control district officials, and many other agencies.

"The saving comes from the fact that there is no necessity for large surveying parties in the fields for long periods of time," Matthews explained.

Stop Thief! Stop Thief!

It's a well known fact that every Better Business Bureau's files throughout the nation are crammed with case histories, of fraud after fraud perpetrated by door to door peddlers. Belle Glade has just suffered another raid by some unscrupulous itinerant photographers. A number of our leading citizens have been milked and muled of their hard earned cash. By an itinerant outfit which has failed to deliver the goods...

Even had they received the merchandise they bargained for—would it have been a bargain? What is your recourse if the pictures are not as ordered or represented? Can you take them back to the man who took your money? No—he is gone.

What is your recourse if the pictures fade—stain—etc.? A year from now can you take them back?

Supposing you desire extra copies or reprints six months from now? Can you go back to the man who sold them to you?

Every Better Business Bureau, Chamber of Commerce, your own Business and Professional Women's Club, etc., will advise you totraded at home. Why? The above mentioned reasons are only a few. To the people of Belle Glade—no itinerant fly-by-night can serve as well or as cheap, when the matter is thoroughly examined... As further proof of this we will continue our Saturday specials for some time to come.

If every mother who was gyped in the last 30 days and paid her money to these itinerants will come in and admit being taken, I will make her one FREE portrait.

A bridal shower, honoring Miss Joy Bailey, whose marriage to Howard Payne, will take place October 22nd, was given Tuesday night by Mrs. Chas. Wilkinson of Pahokee, at the home of Mrs. Ellis Wilkinson, North Moore Gardens.

Symbolic of Mrs. Payne's profession, the bride-to-be was first taken on a "Musical Honeymoon" which each guest sang a song representing a different country. Another game, "Shakespearean Romance" was played, with Mrs. Alma Murphy winning the contest prize.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and decorated with candles and flowers. A miniature band of the color table was also present. The program was served to the following guests: Miss Kathryn Lys, Miss Mary Collins, Miss Mary Alma Murphy, Miss Constance Smith, Mrs. Robt. Davis, Mrs. S. K. Smith, Jr. and Mrs. Francis Cross all of Belle Glade. Guests from Pahokee were Miss Betty Lou Pickett, Mrs. David Beach, Jack Phillips, Mrs. J. W. Mullis and Mrs. Joe Thompson. NEURO FOOTBALL Continued from page 1

Carver Industrial just took control of the situation into their own hands, as they rolled over an apparent less trained and lighter team in the Bobcats, and won by the top sided score of 25 to 6.

The visitors made telling use of its strong throwing system, completing six long passes out of 16 tries, and were also superior in their ground play, the Bobcats could not clock enough to break up the passes or stop that strong back field advance.

Several new additions were presented and given consideration.

The report of the special committee on the purchase of the colored school grounds by the Board of Commissioners was presented. Commission deemed the report an excellent one, and voted to notify the Board of Commissioners of its intent to close on the option under the terms of a tentative agreement. The Solicitor and some Commissioners will confer on the deal with the Board next Tuesday to close the deal.

At the second meeting this week the boys will decide upon their projects for the year. Gardening, poultry flocks, raising calves, pig raising, raising horses and other domestic ani-

Oklahoma is the only pure "dry" state according to state law, but pretty "wet" at that. The effort to get the law repealed in a special election last week, ended in a failure for the "wets." Even so, the state is not likely to have its liquor con-sumption record lessened to any discernable amount.

TELEPHONE FOLKS

are setting a New Record DOWN ON THE FARM

Southern Bell is putting in farm telephones five times as fast as before the war. Total telephone installations in Southern rural areas this year will set an all-time record!

Linking farms scattered over the South to markets and friends in town is a tremendous job that calls for thousands of poles and thousands of miles of telephone wire. It also calls for the know-how, experience, and the kind of equipment that has made America's telephone service the best in the world. Since the war approximately sixty million dollars have been spent to expand and improve telephone service in rural sections.

Telephone folks are working hard to extend service as rapidly as possible to all the farmers who want it. And we're making outstanding progress!

Florida growing and labor cost conditions. Louisiana growers also have their own similar pact. The plan is claimed to be more equitable to each of the producing areas. Cane is grown more easily and profitably in Florida than in Louisiana and Texas.

On a recent afternoon, while Cliff Green and E. F. McAllister, of the state prison farm, were driving west from West Palm Beach, they saw a negro ahead of them on the highway, who had a familiar look, and it proved to be Johnnie Davis, who had escaped from the prison on September 22nd. He was taken into West Palm Beach, and lodged in the county jail, and later Judge Newell, called an extra year to his original sentence. Comparatively few of the prisoners who make attempt to make a clean get out are successful, and they still continue on trying. Police communication and searching parties are just too much for the escapes to make good.

Looks mighty good to see that rich black mud land being turned for crops; and equally as pretty to see the vegetation toppling the soil in long regular rows. All the farmers are singing the old refrain, "What shall the harvest be?"

The Glade area town law enforcement officers may be given a 231 instructional school for the balance of the winter months. Negotiations are working very satisfactory toward that end. This is a school similar to one held last year in West Palm Beach.

One of the worst fire losses newspaper was that which visited the Miami Herald, over the weekend. The fire was in its reserve paper warehouse and many rolls of priceless paper were consumed, an estimated cost of $500,000. Fire investigators traced the source of the fire to a waste paper basket, where a possible cigarette had been dumped by someone.

Florida newspapermen and their women folk are in for a fine convention and entertainment when the Florida Press Association gathers for the November meeting, at Naples, on the Gulf of Mexico. Boating, bathing, golf, fishing and shows are in prospect for the visitors.

Now that our city government is all set up for the coming political year, things should begin to operate along a normal line. There is a program ahead that means much improvement of the city, and there seems a unity among the commission that they should be performed. Every city employee, knowing they are going to draw a pretty liberal semi-monthly pay check, should and no doubt will, join with the department heads in making improvement that will be of civic import and value. A larger and better Belle Glade is desired by officials and citizens, and with combined cooperation a many betterment changes can be accomplished.

When the cattlemen of South Florida recently gathered at the Sugarland range at Clewiston, they were deeply impressed with what they saw and heard concerning the protection which the Sugar Corporation has made in the breeding of pedigreed beef cattle. Good drainage, excellent pastures, fine breeding sires and dams and wise management has placed the Sugarland range as one of the best and finest in all the state.

How eager are those youthful Junior football players to learn the game! What energy they put into their play! It is from their ranks that our future Rams will be recruited. There are some of them who are showing much promise and soon will be our first team Rams. Young Kent, is one who promises to follow in the footsteps of his brother Ray as a fine player. Had to smile when one of the lads carrying the ball, had his helmet fall off. He forgot and deemed the recovery of the headgear more important than getting the ball down the line. Less than a second, and they will learn and may become gridiron stars of future years.

Looks as if our townsoy, Carroll McDonald, in this year and two more seasons to follow, will play quite a part in Florida University football records. Coach Wolfe is using him in most of the games. At Tulsa he did some wonderful "kickoff" work and also nabbed a pass on which he made a good ground advancement. He can also claim that line like the "guy" from his center position.

leaving in the morning and coming back in the evening, loaded down with negro workers, then you know the cropping season is on in full force in the Glades. There is likely more people working in the fields, than are in the packing houses when in operation. Several thousand negroes make their bread and butter by working in the crop deal.

Consistently To Hold Reunion Middle Weeks Of Coming November

Secretary Irvin Heugland, of the Scottish Rite Consistory, at Lake Worth, has announced that the semi-annual fall meeting of those bodies will be held November 12-14 and 20-21, at the cathedral in that City. Dr. Russell Williams, of Miami, who for 21 years has been the most able class instructor, will again be a portion of the reunion work. It is known that Everglades City and Ft. Myers, now a part of this jurisdiction, have formed sizeable classes of candidates to receive the grade work at this reunion, also Vero Beach, Ft. Pierce and Stuart, and as usual the Glades area will swell the class membership roll.

Churches of Christ, Scientist

"DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT" is the subject of the Lecture-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, October 16.

The Golden Text is: "All things come by the gift of God, and are freely given to us by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Cor. 1:3-4).

Among the scriptures which comprise the Lecture-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he taketh away our sin." (1 John 2:1-2).

The Lecture-Sermon also includes the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health, with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy; Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage. His mission was both individual and collective. He did life's work aright, not in justice to himself, but in mercy to mankind,—to show them how to do their best, not to do it for their own relief from a simple responsibility" (183-3).

Consumers' Problems

By Mrs. Ora D. Lee

Mrs. Lee has done special research on this problem at Tucker Institute, Alabama, Hampton Institute, Virginia, and Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

The community club can help solve the consumer's problem in my community. We have listed by forming study groups to know the vitamin content of various foods and other food composition including the basic seven foods that are essential for everyday living. Many housewives do not know that they should have green and yellow vegetables in their meals and why. When the American Consumer becomes educated as to food value content, then we will have more healthy families.

Drugs and cosmetics form an experience item in the American consumer's budget. These products should also be given adequate study and consideration in our consumer program. Finally, the consumer should be trained in keeping a budget on family income and expenditures. This training will help them realize more the value of wise and intelligent spending.

Points to discuss in Discussion of Consumer Problems. (For clubs, study groups, and consumer education classes.)

1. The points which enable you to become better consumer.
2. Advertising the consumer.
3. Buying in quantities for economy.
4. Grade labeling versus descriptive labeling.
5. How to determine the quality of a fabric.
6. What the label should tell the consumer.
7. Can the consumer tell what's buying?
8. Points to observe when buying clothes.
9. Budgeting for the family.
10. Budgeting for the individual.

11. How consumers can work with their legislatures.

12. The need of consumer organizations.

After studying the content of this report, and after reading literature on consumer education, under guidance of a trained leader, the consumer in my community or city community should be a better and more intelligent buyer.

Aids in solving the problems of consumer education in my community.

1. Through the community club (meets weekly).
2. Home Demonstrations.
3. Church programs on Sunday when working people are at leisure.

It has brought us closer together and has enlightened us as to what is going on about us. Cinematic Chapter

If you laugh as hard at "It Happens Every Spring," will be filmed at the Hugo Theatre, Sunday-Morning, as I did, you're a very happy person.

"It Happens Every Spring" stars Ray Milland, Jean Peters and Paul Douglas, with a fine cast of players, and it tells a story with a new slant for Hollywood.

A professor accidentally creates a field that makes leather wood-repellent. Being quite a ball pitcher in his own right, the professor goes to St. Louis and joins the baseball team.

Naturally he is a sensation as a ball player, winning international publicity, due to the fact that no player can hit a ball pitched by this phenomenal gift to the diamond. But there are complications that at home and abroad, added together make for one howl of laughter from the start to the finish of this most delightful comedy.

Folks, believe me, you'll love every inch of this rollicking comedy.

See you at the movies—Mick.

cepts their offer to sell said property for a price of $28,500.

2. We recommend that the City offer in their letter of acceptance to pay the School Board for the property as follows: Ten thousand dollars on receiving from the Board an agreement for deed but not to be paid until December 15, 1949. Eight thousand dollars upon physical transfer of the property to the city but not before January 15, 1950.

3. We recommend financing the purchase of said property as follows: (a) Borrowing $12,000 from the City Water Department funds to be repaid during the fiscal year of 1951, $7500; and the balance during the fiscal year of 1952. (b) Using $15,000 set up in the 1950 budget for purchase of property.

(c) Balance balance of $10,500 by selling bonding space in advance to farmers and contractors at the rate of $150, each for 70 acres, or $500, each for 55 acres. The City would have until January 15, 1950 to sell and collect for these spaces.

4. The offer to sell made to the City by the School Board will be withdrawn on Tuesday, October 18, 1949, because of other private cash offers. In the event the City purchases this property the School Board will vacate the property by December 1, 1949.

Respectfully submitted, Lillian Allen and Earl Hixson.

Mr. Harris stated that he had conferred with the School Board and it gave a tentative agreement to the above proposition. So far as the city finances are concerned it is believed that they will be provided. The only block will be from the persons who may desire parking and loading space of the proposed city loading site.

Tourist Trading Brings Millions To Florida Mills

Strong tourist spending is an important force in Florida's annual retail sales volume, according to a report released in 1948, according to the weekly business review of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

The research and statistics division of the State Chamber in retail stores, filling stations, eating places, and stores, etc., of $219,000,000 last year, by both tourists and residents of Florida.

Nationally 63 percent of the income of all persons in 1948 was spent through these outlets. The corresponding figure for the eleven southeastern states was 68 percent and for Florida was 78 percent.

This high Florida percentage of retail sales in relation to personal income of Floridians is obviously the result of tourist expenditures. By scaling down the Florida percent to approximately the rate of the Southeast, the tourist retail expenditure in Florida is thereby computed at $258,000,000.

It is emphasized that this tourist spending figure includes only purchases through regular retail outlets and does not cover amounts tourists spend for services, amusements, utilities, rents and hotel rooms.

Bill Pierce Responds To Call Of Havana Firm To Iron Out Difficulties

"Bill" Pierce, well known for his mechanical and electrical engineering ability, has returned home from a recent business trip to Havana and other points in Cuba, where he was in consultation with officials of a large company who is doing industrial work in Cuba and South America.

He reports that he was able to clear up some of the technical troubles which were facing the company, but that a return trip in a few weeks would be required of him.

Bill cited that he felt in love with the city and the hospitality of the business men contacted, as through their generosity he had auto and plane rides to show him the lay-out of the island and particular project which called him there. He visited some of the famous entertainment spots of the Cuban city.

HERE'S THE HOW TO

Representative George W. Andrews of Alabama had an idea and he put it into a bill. Under his proposal, the Treasury would sell bonds to the citizens and use the proceeds to build up the dairy herd and milk production.

He says there are some 4,000 towns and cities eligible for new Post Offices. "Why not get them now?" he asked.

There's been a lot of response to the bill. One town official said he could sell enough bonds in two hours to build a Post Office.

The bill now is before the House Ways and Means Committee. Andrews expects a hearing at the present session but he doesn't believe it will get the House floor before the second session of the 81st Congress next January.
